Childhood Memories.....

Isn't it a fact that some of the things that happened to you in childhood are still among the most vivid things in your memory?

Childhood impressions are lasting. As the twig is inclined, the tree will grow. If you teach the child the saving habit by starting a bank account, the habit will grow. Many parents realize this and have had their children open accounts at our bank. They are taught to save pennies, the nickles and the dimes. In after years it is easy for them to save the dollars also. You couldn't do better by your children this Christmas than to help them start a little bank account.

FOOD SALE

The Marthas will hold a food sale in connection with their Bazaar, at the Carter Tracy Hardware store, Saturday, December 15th. Among other good things to eat, dressed chickens, pies, brown bread, and other food will be on sale.

WAR-SAVING CERTIFICATES HERE.

Postmaster J. A. Miller has received a consignment of the new War-Saving Certificates, Thrift Cards and Stamps. The new issue is termed, "Baby Bonds" and is designed for those patriotically inclined but who can invest only a small sum. Ask the postmaster for full information. Mrs. Mary Drew was the first purchaser here. J. O. Judd bought the second.

PROBST BUYS STUDEBAKER SEDAN

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Probst are enjoying the comforts of a fine new Studebaker Sedan, bought thru the local dealers, Humphrey & Crabtree. The new car is certainly a beauty and is equipped for winter comfort, being of the closed top model and luxuriously upholstered.

RED CROSS WORKERS VERY BUSY

County Red Cross headquarters is being kept busy answering demands from instructors from all parts of the county. Mrs. Frank Maple went to Gray; Mrs. F. C. Tracy to Balke, and Mrs. W. T. Quinn to LaKemp Friday and Saturday of last week. Ivanhoe is asking for an instructor Friday and Saturday of this week. Others are wanting organization and instruction as quickly as they can be reached. Red Cross work is going forward now in earnest but we need more workers. There is work for all. What are you doing? What will you do? You MUST do something. THE DEMAND IS URGENT.

The Sign of the Red Cross

Millions and millions of stricken people in devastated Europe must depend on the activity of the Red Cross alone for the most meager necessities of life—just enough to keep body and soul together. The Red Cross organization is the universal helping hand. But in order to extend this hand to the sorrowing and afflicted, it must have your support. In fact, if you would do your part to relieve the suffering in the world, you can do it most directly and efficiently through the Red Cross. Become a member today.

HURT BY AUTOMOBILE

A. T. Hull, who lives southwest of LaKemp and who had been visiting relatives at Stillwater, was brought in Friday night on the train, on a stretcher, and taken to his home Sunday. His sons met him here and he was taken to his home in A. D. Humphrey's big truck.

Mr. Hull was injured several weeks ago at Stillwater by an automobile, receiving a broken leg, several broken ribs and other injuries. He was driving along the road with a team when he overtook a new driver having trouble with his car. He stopped to help the man out, and after starting the machine it was stalled on a hill, a rock being placed behind the rear wheel. In trying to start again, it was found the car was out of gas, so Mr. Hull attempted to remove the rock from behind the wheel and let the driver back down hill. In doing so, the driver failed to use his brakes, or they would not hold, and the car backed over Mr. Hull, injuring him as stated. He was given every attention by the driver of the car, who paid all expense and stayed with him constantly, coming as far as Woodward with him on his return home.

The accident was just one of those unfortunate ones for which nobody seems to blame, but Mr. Hull, being well advanced in years, though doing well, will not fully recover for some weeks to come.

MORE BEAVER BOYS ENLIST

Sylvester and Leander Niles left yesterday for Oklahoma City at which place they will enlist in some branch of the army service. They had not determined when leaving here as to the branch they might prefer but will probably offer themselves where the recruiting officer feels they are most needed. Both are big, strong, clean young men—the kind that make good soldiers. Beaver friends wish them well and will ever be anxious to hear news of their camp life.

SPLENDID RED CROSS ENTERTAINMENT

The local picture house, The Globe Theatre, under the efficient management of Spangler Brothers, and Miss Helen Murphy, teacher of the primary grade in the Beaver school, assisted by her pupils, a few of the older school children and local musical talent, gave an entertainment at The Globe, Thursday night, of last week, for the benefit of the Red Cross. All of the proceeds, which amounted to $51.25, went to the Red Cross. Spangler Brothers bearing the expense of the house and picture program. They did this in recognition of National Red Cross Theatrical Day, at the request of National Headquarters, all theatres and picture shows of the country being asked to give the proceeds of that day for the work of humanity. Spangler Brothers are entitled to the thanks of the local chapter for their generosity. They complied with the request gladly and freely.

The program added by Miss Murphy and her pupils, in order to swell the door receipts, was certainly splendid and was spoken of most highly by all. The little tots took great pride in carrying out their patriotic program and they did it to the perfect satisfaction and entertainment of all. Every number was splendid, from the first selection of patriotic airs by the Children's Orchestra, to the closing tableau, portraying the dainty little Red Cross nurse with one administering hand extended to the Soldier Boy and the other to the Sailor, a huge Red Cross making the background for the scene, and Old Glory being unfurled at just the proper time. The flag was an immense one, extended from the ceiling to the floor and came in as a most fitting climax to the whole affair.

SPLENDID SENTIMENT—READ IT

To the People of Twin Mounds:
Camp Travis, Texas, Dec. 4, 1917.
To the Folks Back Home:

It is a wonderful thing—this "Call to the Colors," and this service in the army of the United States. I find that the things formerly so important seem small and trivial in the life we lead here in camp. The intense earnestness of all officers and men—the realization that we are part of a great machine that is being forged to make freedom once and for all the unquestioned right of every man—all these things make our enrollment on honor and our military service only a privilege.

Officers and men have but one test for all that we do, and that test is the question "Will It Help us Win the War?" Nothing else is important, nothing else is really worth while. We have pledged to lend not only our minds and bodies to the support of the government and in defense of the principles of democracy, but are helping to finance our campaign by buying Second Liberty Loan Bonds, for that too will help us win the war.

I know that you are doing your part too, and all of you know what that part is. Nearly every soldier has one, two or three Liberty Loan Bonds. I have three. We will soon go to Leon Springs for rifle practice. Some of the boys were hoping that we would get a furlough Christmas, but our Captain got orders recently not to issue any passes, so please don't forget us Christmas, for we will be rather lonesome or home sick by that time.

There are eight Y. M. C. A. buildings here and are doing good work. Several thousand of negroes are in training here.

With best regards to all. Will be glad to receive letters from all my friends.

PVT FLOYD GRITON,
357th Inf. Co. E.

F. O. Bunyan and family of Stafford, Kansas, visited the past week at the home of his cousins, Mrs. T. L. and Mrs. Pearl Thompson.

Mrs. T. L. Thompson and little daughter, Zoe, arrived home Thursday morning from a two weeks' visit with her sister, Miss Louie Husk, of Dunlap.

Elmer Humphrey was here the past week on a visit to his brother, Austin and family. He went on to Stillwater this week for a visit with his parents after which he will enlist in the service of his country.

A mad rush took place at the coal yard this week, Probst Grain Company receiving car of coal Tuesday. If our people heeded the admonition of The Herald last summer and laid in their winter supply this shortage would not exist, and those who did not have the money to buy in advance could be supplied but they didn't.

INSIGNIA OF OFFICE

It may be interesting to others, as it was to us, to know the insignia which the different officers of the Army are entitled to wear. Lieut. Ledru Healy has kindly furnished us with the following list. Cut this out and preserve it for further reference:
